

Time	Suggested Topic	Format	Speakers
June 6 (4 – 6pm)	What is precision medicine? What value precision medicine (PM) can bring Status quo of Infrastructural development in Hong Kong (Genome Project)	Lecture, Q&A session	Prof. John Kao, Head of BioMedical Technology Cluster, HKSTP Prof. TY Leung, Chairman of Department of Obstetrics and Gynaecology, CUHK (Member, Steering Committee on Genome Project, HKSAR) Moderator: Lawrence Wong
11 Jun (4 – 6 pm)	How to facilitate its progress and development on PM How to gear up the supports for commercial applications	5 mins Perspective brief for each speaker, Panel discussion	Dr. Alexander Chiu, Medical Director, Health and Employee Benefits of AXA Hong Kong and Macau (Insurance and the healthcare system) (TBC) (Research and development) Prof. Ian Wong, Head of Department of Pharmacology & Pharmacy, HKU (Infrastructure/Data) Dr. Daniel Thurley, General Manager, Roche HK Limited (Pharma) (TBC) (startup and investment) Moderator: Lawrence Wong
June 28 (9am – 12pm)	What are the situational updates on PM framework worldwide/APAC How to develop regulatory framework for PM What are the foreseen challenges for RA operations	Lecture, panel discussion	Baker McKenzie’s legal expert in Life Sciences Global (TBC) Mr. Lot Chan, Chief Pharmacist, Drug Office – what Hong Kong has done to set up regulatory framework Pharma’s perspective (the areas concern of pharma industry) (TBC) Moderator: Sabrina Chan