

The Hong Kong Association of the Pharmaceutical Industry
Seminar: Post-VHIS insurance market

The Voluntary Health Insurance Scheme (VHIS) launched this year has brought about a closer relationship between private insurers and the pharmaceutical industry in response to market needs. To understand the changes and the opportunities, we have invited Dr Alexander Chiu, medical director of health and employee benefits at AXA Hong Kong, to share with his insights on the how would the flexi-plans fill the gap between treatment cost and coverage of basic plans, as well as the key changes between VHIS and current insurance plans.

Date: 23 September 2019 (Mon)

Time: 4:30pm to 6:00pm (Registration starts at 4:00pm)

Speaker: Dr Alexander Chiu, Medical Director of Health and Employee Benefits at AXA Hong Kong and Macau

Fee: HK$ 220 (Members only)

Please contact Ms. Catherine Chau at 2528 3061/ catherine.chau@hkapi.hk for RSVP and enquiries

Time	Program	Speakers
4:00pm	Registration
4:30pm	Preamble	Ms. Dorine Leung Sponsor, Open Access Taskforce
	Welcome and Introduction
4:35pm	Brief Introduction- VHIS (objective & long term goal) & Basic plan	Dr. Alexander Chiu Medical Director of Health and Employee Benefits at AXA Hong Kong and Macau
4:45pm	Flexi-plans analysis: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Key changes between VHIS and current insurance plans • How would new insurance products fill the gap between treatment cost and coverage of basic plans
5:15pm	Q&A	All
5:30pm	Break
5:35pm	Interactive session: Long-term Pharma-insurance collaboration on VHIS flexi plans	Dr Alexander Chiu Ms Joyce Chiu, Lead, Open Access Taskforce
5:55pm	Looking Forward	Ms. Dorine Leung